Present Simple

We use the Present Simple to talk about things that are true in general, habits, routines and permanent situations.

Let's see a real example!

Think and Answer

1

What does Joey mean by this?

2

Do you agree with him? Why (not)?

3

What are some things you don't share?

Present Simple

We use the Present Simple to talk about:

routines

(e.g. every day, in the morning)

habits

(e.g. usually, often, sometimes) things that are generally true

(e.g. The sun rises in the east.)

My dad drinks coffee every morning.

What do you do every morning?

Present Simple

We use the Present Simple to talk about routines and habits.

Our class finishes
at 2 p.m.

My mom drinks
coffee every morning.

My brother plays
football on Saturdays.

So, when you describe your routine or an action someone does regularly, you use the Present Simple.

Present Simple

It is actually very easy to make a sentence in the Present Simple Tense. You just need a subject and a verb. That's all!

Affirmative (+)	Negative (-)	Question (?)
I wake up at 7 a.m.	I don't wake up at 7 a.m.	Do I wake up at 7 a.m.?
You play football.	You don't play football.	Do you play football?
She watches TV.	She doesn't watch TV.	Does she watch TV?
We go to school.	We don't go to school.	Do we go to school?
They read books.	They don't read books.	Do they read books?

Remember!

- ★ I / you / we / they + verb (e.g. work, play, go)
- ★ He / she / it + verb + -s/-es (e.g. works, plays, goes)
- ★ In questions we use Do / Does
- ★ In negatives we use don't / doesn't

So, don't forget! Use a subject and a verb to write a sentence in the Present Simple.

Present Simple

We often use adverbs of frequency, like:

0%

100% never hardly ever sometimes often usually always

You can also use these phrases for more exact frequency:
every day / week / month, on Mondays, twice a week, etc.

Now it's your turn! Use adverbs of frequency to make sentences.

My brother never watches horror movies.

I hardly ever see my girlfriend.

My friends often play football.

We usually eat out at the weekend.

She always wakes up early.

Present Simple

Do you remember the verbs in the Present Simple?

The main form of the verb in the Present Simple is the base form (V1).
For he / she / it we usually add -s or -es.

We use the Present Simple to talk about habits, facts, general truths and things that are always true.

Examples:

I am 18 years old.
You are a student.
She loves music.
He plays football.
It is a beautiful day.
We live in Aktobe.
They go to school.

Small habits make big results! ♥

Let's practice! Make a few sentences about yourself using the Present Simple.

Present Simple

We use the Present Simple when things or situations are generally true or always the case.

For something that's generally true, you can say:

- The sun rises in the east.
- People in Kazakhstan are friendly.
- Water boils at 100°C.
- I love my family.

We also use the Present Simple to talk about facts and things that do not change.

The Earth goes around the Sun.

Present Simple

What is always true? FACTS. So, these things never change, and that is why we use the Present Simple.

The sun rises
in the east.

The Earth is flat.

Wind causes
waves.

Present Simple

We also use the Present Simple to describe the plots of books, movies and TV shows. Sometimes we use it to gossip about people and tell a story.

GAME OF THRONES

In Game of Thrones,
She burns down the whole city with her dragon.

But she dies at the end of the series.

Aydana walks in.
I ask her "What is your problem?".
She hits me.
I hit her back.
And then we start
fighting.

GOSSIP WITH FRIENDS

We use the Present Simple for:

- plots of books, movies and TV shows
- things that happen again and again
- gossip and telling stories

Use the Present Simple to make interesting and clear stories!

Practice

Look at Sally's daily routine. Try to describe what she does every day.

This is Sally!

Tell the class about Sally's daily routine!

- She gets up at ...
- She has ...
- She ... at ...
- She ... after ...
- She ... in the evening.

Negative

S + do/does + not + V + O.

Subject	Full form	Short form
I / you / we / they (play, go, live, etc.)	do not	don't
he / she / it (plays, goes, lives, etc.)	does not	doesn't

Remember!

- don't = do not
- doesn't = does not
- We add -s/-es to the verb in the negative for he / she / it.

Don't!

Examples

I don't work.
You don't like coffee.
We don't watch TV.
They don't have a car.

He doesn't play football.
She doesn't live in Aktobe.
It doesn't rain a lot.

sentences!

Present Simple

The verb “to have” changes in the Present Simple.

Affirmative (+)

I have a dog.
You have a dog.
He has a dog.
She has a dog.
It has a dog.
We have a dog.
They have a dog.

Negative (-)

I don't have a dog.
You don't have a dog.
He doesn't have a dog.
She doesn't have a dog.
It doesn't have a dog.
We don't have a dog.
They don't have a dog.

Question (?)

Do I have a dog?
Do you have a dog?
Does he have a dog?
Does she have a dog?
Does it have a dog?
Do we have a dog?
Do they have a dog?

Now try to make a few sentences about yourself,
your friends or your family!

We use “do” and “does” to make questions in the Present Simple.
We use “does” for the third person singular (he/she/it) and “do” for the others.

Do / Does + Subject + Verb (V) + ...?

Auxiliary	Subject	Example
Do	I, you, we, they or any plural noun	Do you like music?
Does	he, she, it or any singular noun	Does she like music?

Wh-questions

The structure is the same:

- What do you do?
- What does she do?

More examples:

to work	to have
Do I work?	Do I have a car?
Does she work?	Does she have a car?
Does Milky work?	Does Milky have a car?
