EasyTalk

LESSON 1

Hello, world!

Introductions & languages

Intermediate

Today’s plan

01 Getting to know each other

02 Languages around the world

03 Vocabulary & listening

04 Discussion, quiz & homework

A memorable introduction

What should a new classmate know about you?

Go beyond your name and your job.

Share an interest, a goal and one surprising fact.

A fact file: example

About Sara	Her answers
Age	24
Occupation	Graphic designer
Hometown	Aktobe, Kazakhstan
Hobby	Hiking
Favourite film	Inside Out
Favourite musician	Adele
Favourite sport	Volleyball

Your fact file

Question	Your notes
What do you do?
Where are you from?
What do you do for fun?
What films and music do you enjoy?
What sport do you like?
Why are you learning English?
What might surprise us about you?

Marvel or DC?

Which stories do you prefer?
What makes a good superhero?

Give a reason and a specific example.

Messi or Ronaldo?

What matters more in sport:
talent, discipline or teamwork?

Give a reason and a specific example.

Online fame or a private life?

Would you like to be famous?
What would you gain or lose?

Give a reason and a specific example.

Pizza or sushi?

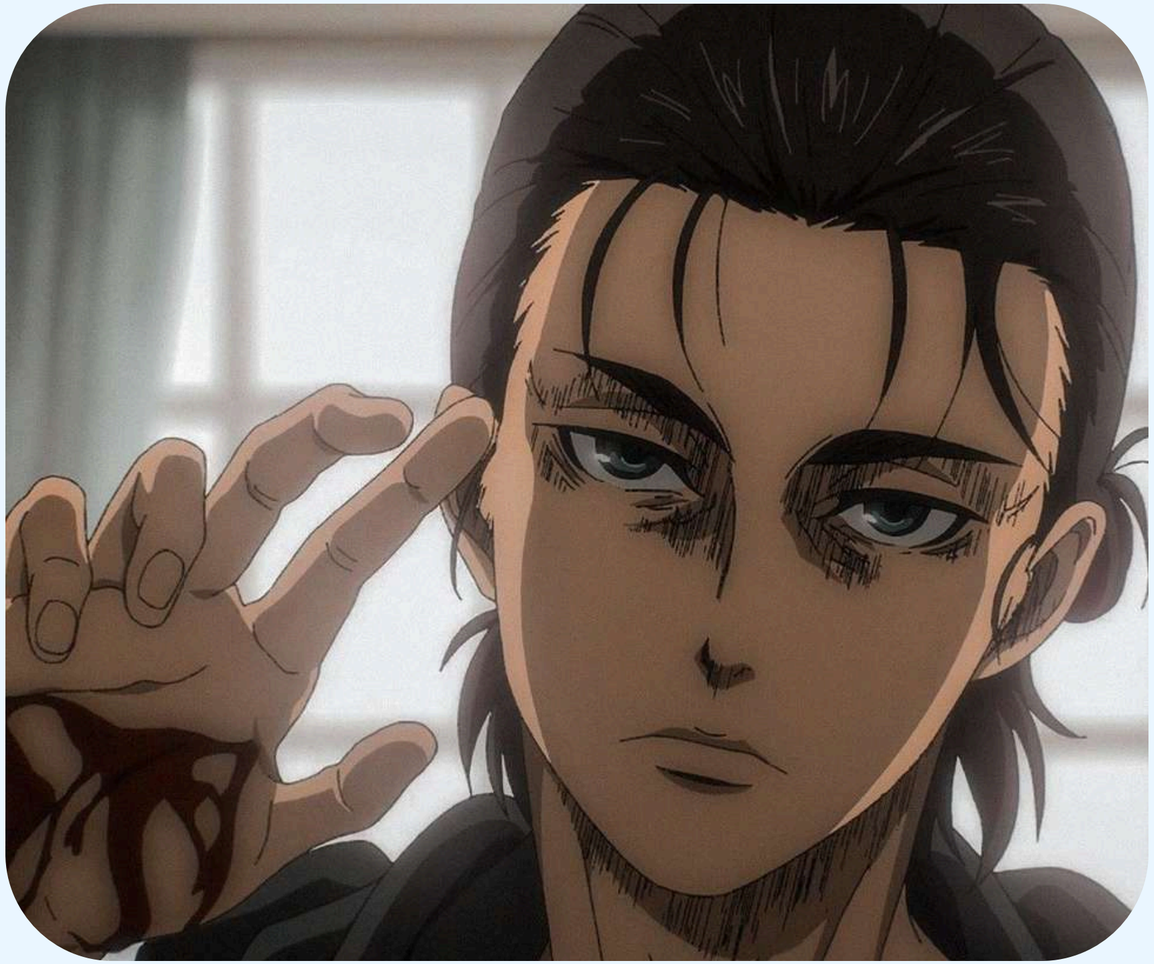

Which would you choose for a meal with friends?

Give a reason and a specific example.

Anime or live action?

Which tells stories better? Recommend one title.

Give a reason and a specific example.

The book or the film?

Do you read a book before watching its film adaptation?

Give a reason and a specific example.

Our classroom agreement

Respect different opinions.

Listen, then ask a follow-up question.

Use English as much as you can.

Use your phone for lesson tasks.

Arrive prepared and on time.

The Netherlands

Name a main language used here.

The Netherlands: answer

Dutch

What other languages might you hear there?

Belgium

Can you name all three official languages?

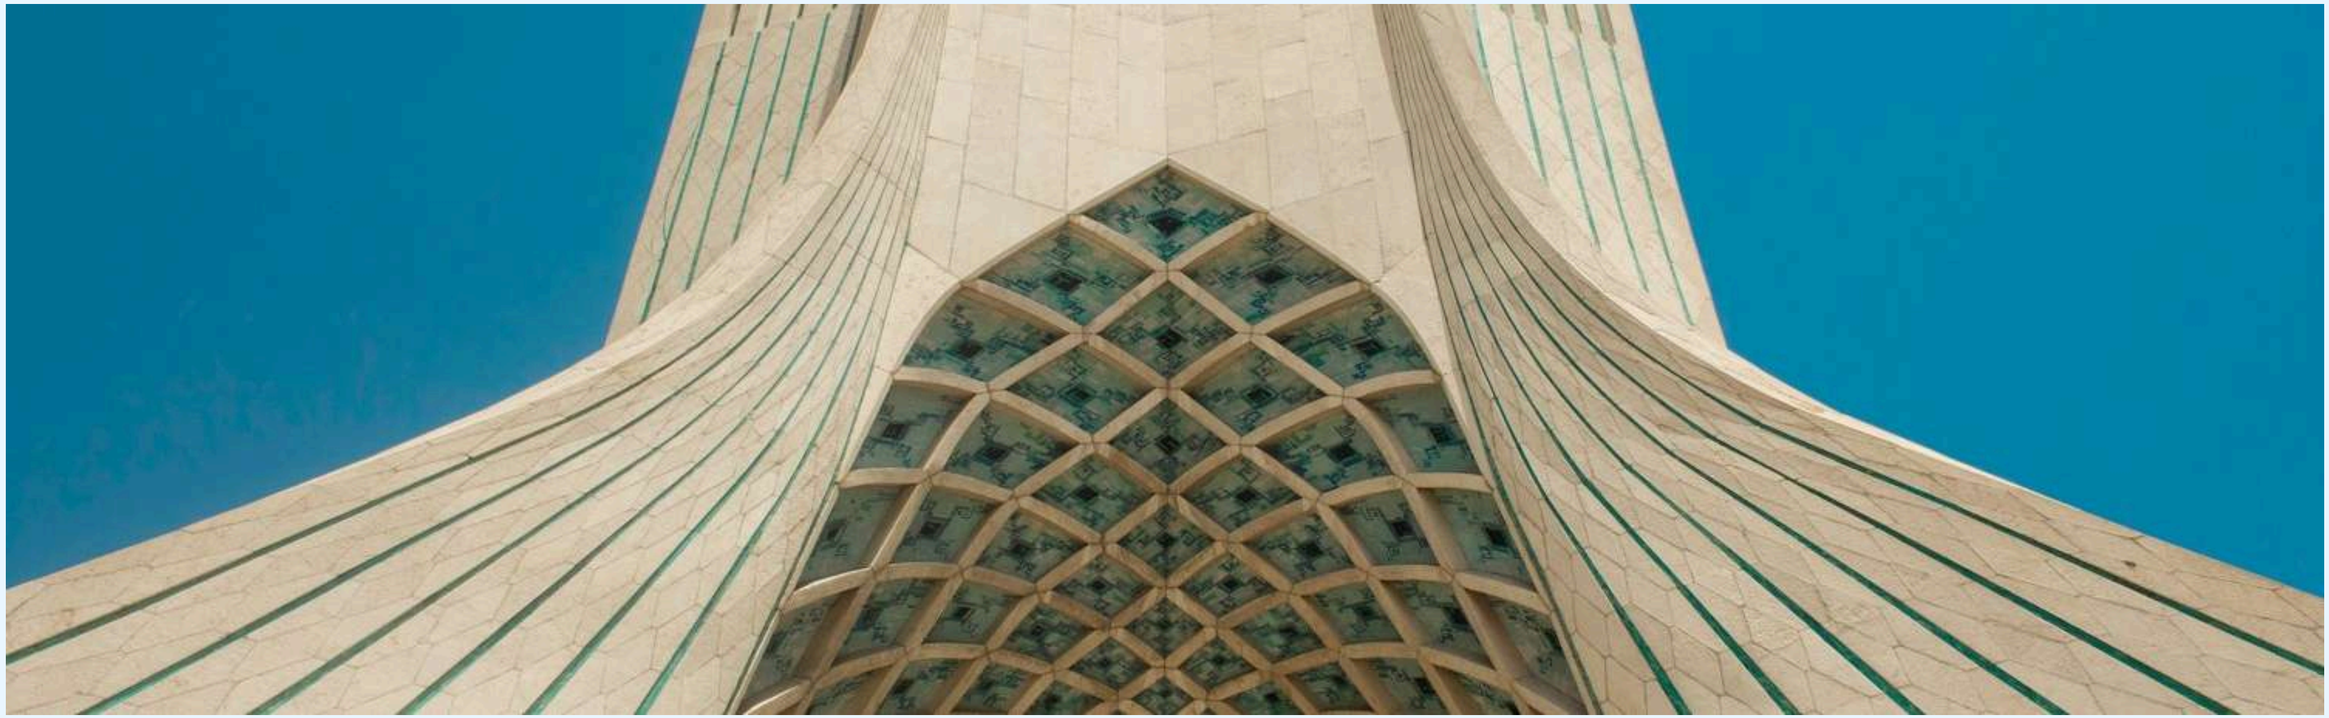

Belgium: answer

Dutch, French and German

What other languages might you hear there?

Iran

Name the official language.

Iran: answer

Persian (Farsi)

What other languages might you hear there?

Iceland

Name the national language.

Iceland: answer

Icelandic

What other languages might you hear there?

Brazil

Which language is used nationally?

Brazil: answer

Portuguese

What other languages might you hear there?

Thailand

Name the national language.

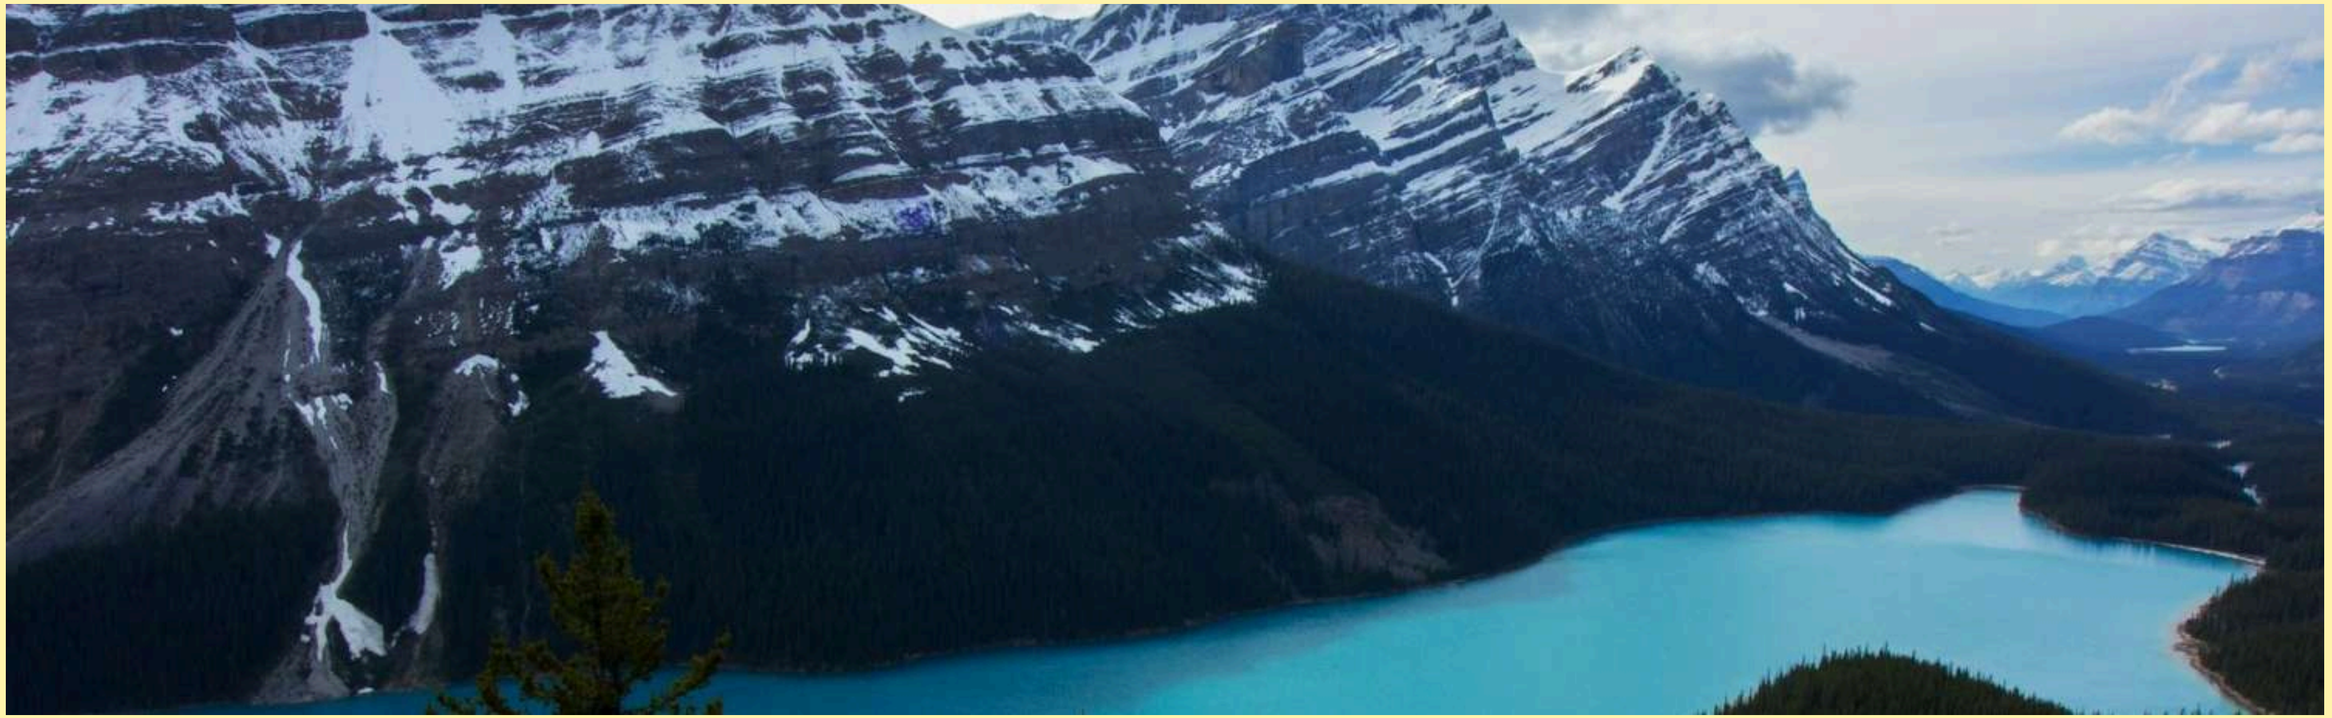

Thailand: answer

Thai

What other languages might you hear there?

Canada

Name the two federal official languages.

Canada: answer

English and French

What other languages might you hear there?

Australia

Which language is used most widely?

Australia: answer

English

What other languages might you hear there?

A language you would love to learn

Which language would you choose to learn next?

What would you use it for?

I’d like to learn … because …

Easy or challenging?

Which language might be easiest for you to learn?

Which might be hardest? Why?

Think about writing, pronunciation and languages you already know.

The most useful language for you

Which language would be most useful in your own life?

Describe a real situation.

For my work / studies / travels, ...

Word in context: slang

I hear a lot of slang in short videos.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

slang

Very informal words and expressions used by particular groups.

What slang do you know in English?

Word in context: master

It takes regular practice to master the guitar.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

master

Learn something extremely well or become highly skilled at it.

What skill would you like to master?

Word in context: pick up

I picked up a few Italian phrases while travelling.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

pick up

Learn something informally, through hearing it or using it.

Where have you picked up new words?

Word in context: vocabulary

I keep a notebook to expand my vocabulary.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

vocabulary

The words a person knows or uses in a language.

How do you remember new vocabulary?

Word in context: fluency

My fluency has improved because I speak every day.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

fluency

The ability to speak smoothly and communicate without long pauses.

Does fluency mean making no mistakes?

Word in context: challenging

Understanding fast speech can be challenging.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

challenging

Difficult in a way that tests your skills or effort.

What is challenging about English for you?

Word in context: alien to someone

The local shopping customs were completely alien to me.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

alien to someone

Completely unfamiliar or strange to a particular person.

What once felt alien to you?

Word in context: complicated

My weekly schedule is complicated.
Every day is different.

Explain the word or phrase in the title.

complicated

Difficult to understand because it has many parts or details.

What makes a task feel complicated?

A complicated language?

What makes a language feel complicated to you?

Compare grammar, writing and pronunciation. Give an example.

Your biggest challenge

Which part of learning English challenges you most?

What has helped so far?

Describe a problem and one practical solution.

Learning naturally or studying rules?

Do you learn more from media or from structured lessons?

When is each approach useful?

Use pick up and vocabulary in your answer.

Speaking more fluently

What could you do this week to improve your fluency?

Make a realistic plan.

How will you know whether it helped?

What does “master a language” mean?

Is it possible to master a language completely?

What would success look like for you?

Give an example of a skill you want to improve.

Listening: two language learners

Listen to your teacher. Then compare answers.

1. Why is Sara learning Spanish?
2. How does she practise?
3. What does she find challenging?
4. How does Daniel use English?
5. How does he learn new words?
6. What will they do together next week?

A word in another language

A: How ___ “hello” in French?

B: Bonjour.

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Very limited ability

A: I can hardly ___ in Spanish.

B: What phrases do you know?

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Talking about progress

A: My English ___ a lot this year.

B: What has helped you most?

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Managing everyday situations

A: I can ___ in Italian when I travel.

B: Can you order food or ask for directions?

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Asking for an opposite

A: What’s ___ “organised”?

B: Disorganised.

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Asking for a similar meaning

A: What’s ___ saying “hard”?

B: Difficult or challenging.

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Checking the language name

A: How do you say “apple” ___?

B: Pomme.

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Explaining a word

A: What ___ someone who isn’t polite?

B: Rude.

Complete the gap. Then act out the conversation.

Discussion: your learning experience

What English slang do you know? Where did you learn it?

Which words are hard to translate into English?

Which writing systems feel unfamiliar to you?

What keeps you motivated to learn?

Should schools teach a second language from an early age?

Discussion: confidence and accuracy

When have you had to get by with only a few phrases?

Have you ever felt embarrassed speaking another language?

What have you picked up while travelling or watching films?

When is confidence more important than accuracy?

What would make you satisfied with your fluency?

World brands: quiz

IKEA

Which country did this brand originate in?

Austria / Sweden / Denmark

IKEA: answer

Sweden

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

H&M

Which country did this brand originate in?

The USA / Sweden / Denmark

H&M: answer

Sweden

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

Zara

Which country did this brand originate in?

Spain / Sweden / Türkiye

Zara: answer

Spain

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

Nokia

Which country did this brand originate in?

Finland / China / Japan

Nokia: answer

Finland

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

Rolex

Which country is Rolex based in?

Monaco / Germany / Switzerland

Rolex: answer

Switzerland

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

Chanel

Which country did this brand originate in?

France / Italy / The UK

Chanel: answer

France

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

LG

Where is LG Electronics headquartered?

Sweden / South Korea / Japan

LG: answer

South Korea

What language or languages might you use there?

World brands: quiz

MINISO

Which country did this brand originate in?

Singapore / Japan / China

MINISO: answer

China

What language or languages might you use there?

Homework: why learn English?

Write 150–200 words.

Explain why English matters in your own life.

Include one personal example and a possible challenge.

Use at least four expressions from this lesson.

Finish with a specific goal for the next month.

Plan your ideas first. Check examples, vocabulary and clarity.