EasyTalk

Use your voice

Lesson 2
Intermediate

Today’s plan

01 The messages behind protest signs

02 A campaign for children’s rights

03 Vocabulary for making a difference

04 Malala’s story and your own campaign

Women’s rights

What is the message of the poster?
What does the portrait add to it?

How can a poster express solidarity?

Equality and justice

What does “No justice, no peace” mean?
Why might a crowd kneel together?

Describe what you see before giving your opinion.

Climate action

What question does the sign ask?
Who do you think it addresses?

How persuasive is this message? Explain why.

Peace and conflict

The main sign means: “Create peace without weapons.”

What do the protesters want people to change?

Animal welfare

What do the images and words suggest?
Which emotions does the poster appeal to?

How could you express a different view respectfully?

What would you speak up about?

Choose one issue that matters to young people in your community.

Who does it affect, and how?

What practical change would help?

Would a protest, a petition or another action work best?

Before the video

A campaign asks people to “go blue”.

What might that involve? How could a colour help people notice a cause?

Make two predictions, then watch.

UNICEF: Go Blue

Open the UNICEF video

First viewing

What is the campaign for?

What do people do
to show support?

A campaign for children’s rights

World Children’s Day
20 November

UNICEF works to support children.
The 2018 Go Blue campaign invited people to show support by wearing or displaying blue.

Which right would you highlight in a school campaign?

Second viewing: true or false?

1. Millie helps organise the Go Blue operation.
2. Only one celebrity takes part.
3. Liam makes blue cupcakes.
4. Dua changes a song lyric from red to blue.
5. The campaign supports children’s rights.
6. Everyone has to buy the same blue outfit.

Correct the false statements with a partner.

Debate: public safety

“Stricter gun laws make communities safer.”

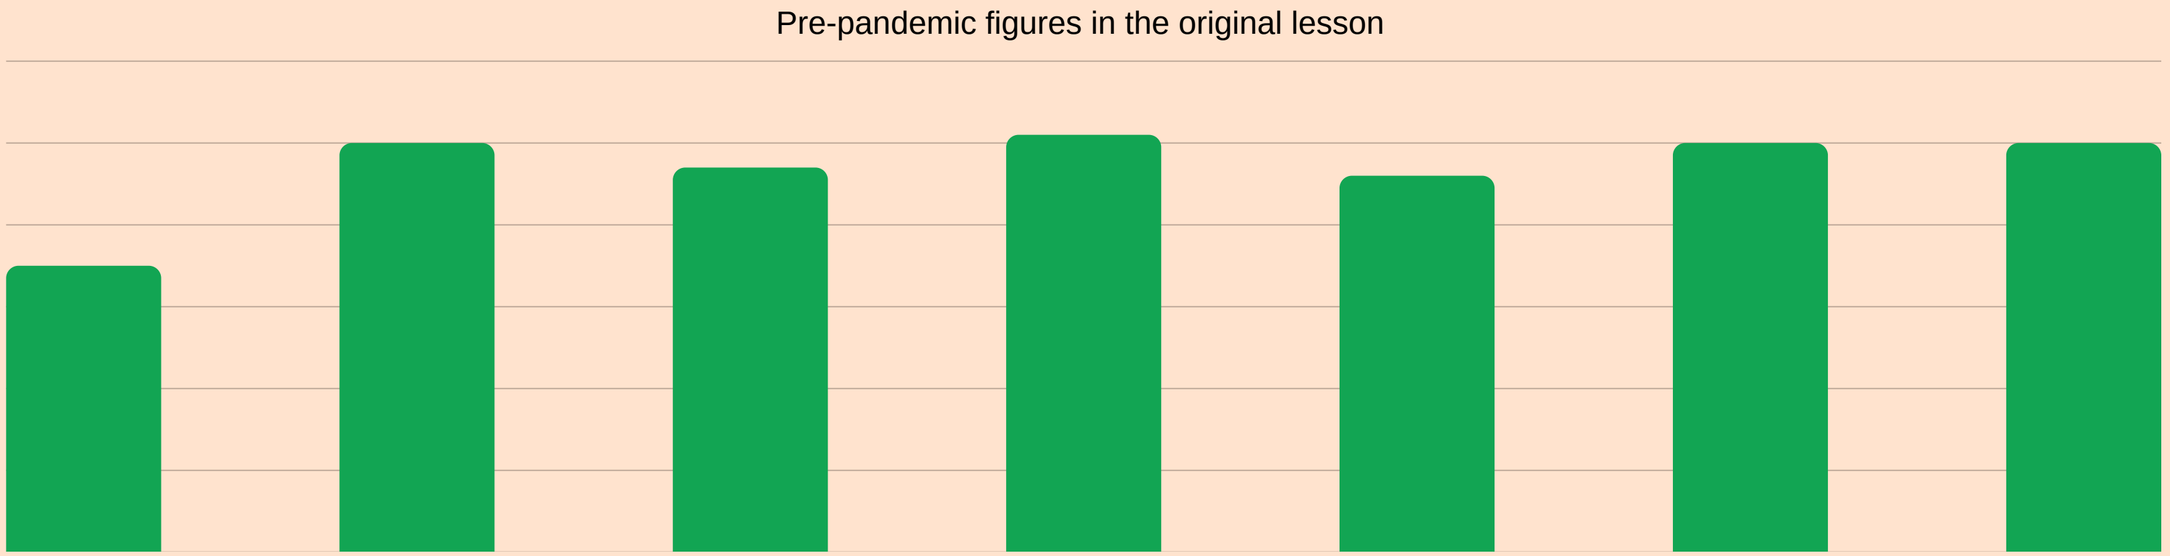

Team A supports the motion.
Team B challenges the motion.

Prepare two arguments and one question for the other team.

7 minutes to prepare. 12 minutes to debate.

Girls in secondary education

Female students as a share of enrolment (%)

Which countries are near 50%? What does 50% mean here?

Approximate values from the supplied chart. The original gives no year or data source.

Equal access to school

What might prevent a girl from attending school?

Which solutions could help?

Who could take action?

Give one possible barrier and a practical response.

Vocabulary: global / influential

An influential blogger shared our global campaign for clean water.

1. Able to affect people’s opinions: ___

2. Involving the whole world: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Vocabulary: campaign / speech

Our school launched a campaign to cut plastic waste. A student gave a speech at assembly.

1. Actions organised for a goal: ___

2. A formal talk to an audience: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Vocabulary: activists / refugees

Local activists organised language classes for refugees who had fled conflict in their home country.

1. People who work for social change: ___

2. People forced to flee their country: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Vocabulary: promote / miss out on

We promote our cleanup online so people don’t miss out on the chance to join.

1. Encourage support for something: ___

2. Lose a chance to take part: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Vocabulary: victory / nomination

Our team celebrated its victory in the debate. Our captain also received a nomination for an award.

1. Success in a competition: ___

2. A formal suggestion for an award: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Vocabulary: founded / focus

Two students founded a reading club. Its main focus is helping younger children enjoy books.

1. Started an organisation: ___

2. The central purpose or subject: ___

Find the words in the example. Then make your own sentence.

Listening: Malala’s story

Listen to your teacher.

What did Malala speak up for?

Which events changed her life?

Listen once for the main idea.

Listening: check the details

1. Malala’s father ran a school.

2. She kept her views on education private.

3. The attack happened on a school bus.

4. She spoke at the United Nations in 2013.

5. She received the Nobel Peace Prize at 25.

6. She studied medicine at Oxford.

True or false? Correct the false statements.

Listening: tell the story

Why was school important in Malala’s family?

How did she make her voice heard as a young girl?

Where did she receive treatment after the attack?

What did she and her father establish in 2013?

What did she study at Oxford, and when did she graduate?

Retell her story in 45 seconds using five key events.

A voice that makes a difference

If you could meet Malala, what would you ask her?

What makes a person influential?

Who inspires people in your community?

Use an example to support your opinion.

Homework: your own campaign

One issue. One clear message.

Choose a problem in your community.

Create a poster with a slogan of 5–10 words.

Write 100–130 words explaining the change you want.

Use four expressions from today’s vocabulary.

Next lesson: a 60-second pitch and one question from the class.