Countries

EASYTALK

The UK = The United Kingdom = British

The USA = The United States of America = American

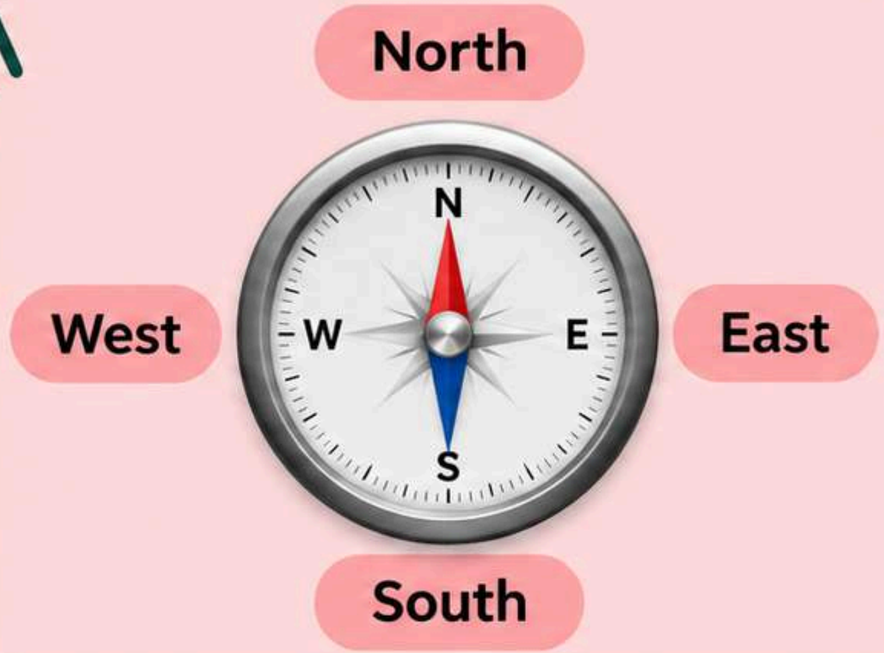

The UK is a kingdom. It is ruled by Queen Elizabeth II. The UK has many other names: England, Great Britain and just Britain.

* when the name of a country is abbreviated, or when the word “republic” is used as part of the name, the definite article is required: the USA, the UK, The Czech Republic.

Directions

EASYTALK

We use no article when the cardinal directions are used as adjectives:

- North America
- West Africa
- South-East Asia

But we do use "the" when the cardinal directions are used as a noun:

- The South of France attracts many visitors each year for both the Monaco Grand Prix and the Cannes Film Festival
